

Crockpot Italian Chicken
(the-girl-who-ate-everything.com)

4 chicken breasts

1 packet dry Zesty Italian dressing (use 1-1½ packet)

8 oz. cream cheese, softened

1-2 cans cream of chicken soup (depending on how cream cheesy you want it)

Place the chicken in a crockpot and sprinkle Italian dressing over it. Combine cream cheese and cream of chicken soup in a small pot over low heat and pour over chicken. Cook on low for at least 4 hours. You can leave it in there all day. If you feel the sauce is too thick you can thin it to your preferred consistency with a little milk. Serve over pasta or rice.
